

General Guidelines to Recruiters

- All communications regarding the Final Placement 2010 must be carried out through the Placement Manager or the Placement Committee.
- Organizations are required to send the duly filled response sheets at the earliest so that the interested candidates may be informed in advance about the company's requirements and procedures.
- Organizations are welcome to hold pre-placement talks, regarding their profile, opportunities and prospects for the aspirants.
- The participating organization will be allotted specific date and time for conducting the selection process considering the organization's and institute's preference.
- The participating organization should send their representative with full authority to declare the results of the recruitment process and make the offer of recruitment to the selected candidate/s immediately after the interview is over. They are also required to provide a waiting list.
